We'll call you by name in Cameron County - "Nature's Showcase."

Nestled in the Allegheny Mountains

the Prospect Motel is located in Emporium, Pennsylvania, the County Seat of Cameron County and Home of "Lady Justice." We are known as one of the last "Green" or "Dark" areas for Star Gazing.

Open year-round, the Motel has been a haven for hunters and fishermen. National and international tourists and business people recognize the quality and comfort of this charming Inn.

Each of the 9 units offer comfortable, clean, well-lit lodging with private baths, and double or single beds for relaxing. AM/FM alarm clock radios are provided for your convenience and luggage racks and soft, plush bath towels await you.

When arriving, you will be cordially greeted by the owners and registered in a friendly manner. We will be happy to guide you to fine restaurants, attractions and area events. Maps are available to see the Mountain Laurel country lanes, fishing streams, free roaming Elk herd, water falls, County Courthouse and Little Museum.

Guests can relax and enjoy the solitude of landscaped, floral beds, shaded surroundings and beautiful green mountains from early spring to late fall & watch the Humming birds and Mother Blue bird tend her brood. The Motel and Innkeepers' quarters offer the feeling of warm friendly country charm.

Located 1 hr. North of Rt. 80 and South of Rt. 17, approximately 3 hours from Buffalo and Rochester, NY, Erie and Scranton, PA, and 4 hours from Harrisburg and Pittsburgh, PA. Philadelphia, PA, and Washington, DC areas 5 hours.

Come, relax at the Prospect Motel. Drink in the majestic mountains, blue sky and fresh, clear mountain air as you visit or transact business. Bring your family and friends for reunions, weddings, vacations or just to get away. Leave the phones, faxes and snarled traffic behind.

Spring - ushers in maple syrup time trees and flowers budding and birds building nests in the fresh mountain air. Coyote and Spring Gobbler hunting seasons open. Fishing season begins with a promising catch using 1 or live bait. The well stocked Sinnemahoning and Portage creeks, just a stone's throw from the Prospect Motel, offer Rainbow, Brown as well as Native trout to catch and enjoy.

Canoe the rivers and hike or bike well-marked trails, including the 85 mile Susquehannock State Trail. Excellent Birding areas and Bald Eagle sightings near the Sinnemahoning State Park.

Summer - The call of the Mourning Dove is refreshing in the early morn. Fireflie dance and wildlife abound. The bear, deer, turkey and Elk can easily be spotted. Country Lanes are beautiful with "Mountain Laurel, the State Flower, in full bloom during June.

Events: Canoe Race, Tom Mix Round-up, PA State Sr. Little League Championship games, Sizerville State Park's Autumn Fest, County Fair, Artfest, Elk Outdoor Expo and more.

Excellent 18 hole Golf course available. Ratec 3 1/2 Star. Sizerville State Park offers camping, hiking, swimming & nature studie

Fall - As the air grows cool and crisp fields come ablaze with Golden Rod. Jack Frost paints the mountains; brilliant hues of red, orange, purple and yellow appear, making the photographer believe this is truly heaven. The Flaming Foliage and Elk are "must see" sites.

The Bull Elk begin their rut, sparring and bugling. Massive and magnificent they can weigh from 700 to 1,000 pounds.

Winter - Big game season with thoughts of bagging a trophy elk, bear, deer turkey are in the air.

Groomed trails for snowmobilers and cross-country skiers are accessible. Ice skating an fishing are available in the area of Pennsylvania, known as "God's Country" or "Land of Endless Mountains"
